1. Introduction

Section 96 (1) of the Freedom of Information Act (1992) requires each government agency, including local governments, to prepare and publish annually an Information Statement.

The Information Statement must set out:-

- The Agency's Mission Statement
- Details of legislation administered
- Details of the agency structure
- Opportunities for public participation in the formulation of policy and performance of the agency functions
- Documents held by the agency
- The operation of FOI in the agency

This document has been prepared by the Shire of Chittering to satisfy Part 5 of the Act. Copies of this document may be obtained from:-

Shire of Chittering
PO Box 70
BINDOON WA 6502

Or on the Shire of Chittering website at www.chittering.wa.gov.au

Enquiries may be made to the Administration Office from 8.30am to 4.30pm (in person) or 8.30am to 5pm by telephone 9576 4600 Monday to Friday, or by e-mail at chatter@chittering.wa.gov.au

2. Enabling Legislation

The Shire of Chittering is constituted as a district under the Local Government Act 1995. The general function of a local government is to provide for the good government of people living and working within its district and includes legislative and executive powers and responsibilities.

Using its legislative powers, local governments make local laws prescribing all matters that are required or permitted to be prescribed by a local law, or are necessary or convenient to be so prescribed for it to perform any of its functions under the Local Government Act.

The local government's executive powers involve administering its local laws and doing other things that are necessary or convenient to be done for, or in connection with, performing its functions under the Local Government Act, including the provision of services and facilities.

3. Background of the Shire of Chittering

The 'Chittering Brook Roads Board District' was designated on the 8 January 1896 but changed 28 days later to the 'Chittering Roads Board District'.

In the early days the Roads Board met at the homes of members. The first Road Board building, now known as the Brockman Centre, was completed in late 1929 or early 1930.

The Council offices are approximately 80 kilometres from Perth. The Shire has a population of approximately 5930 and covers an area of 1,220 square kilometres.

4. Vision and Objectives

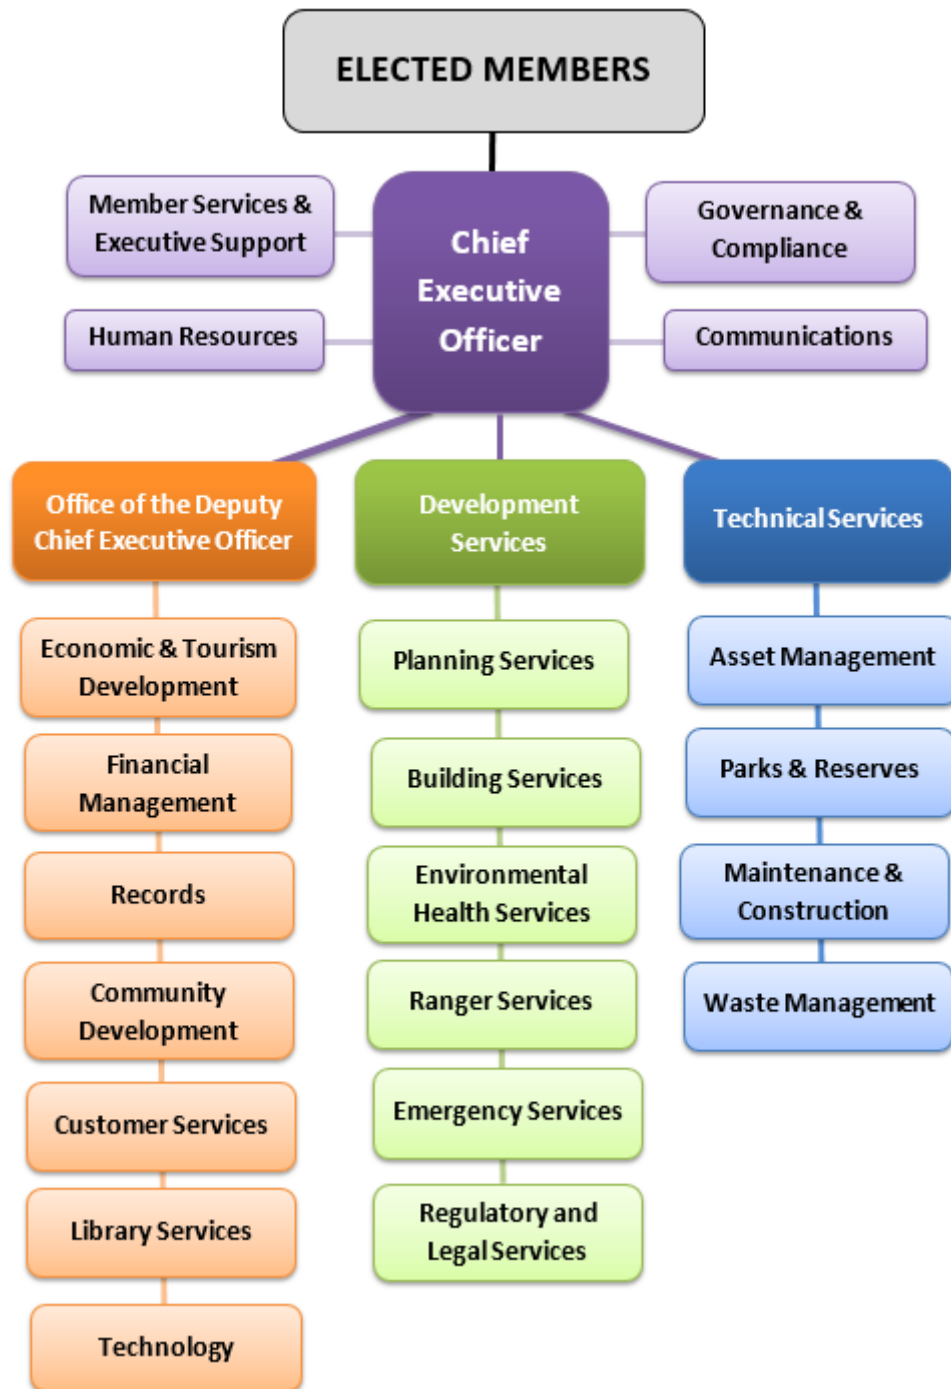

Vision

Our vision is - to be a shire that creates pride and enjoyment for the community, our colleagues and ourselves.

Mission Statement

As leaders, to work with and for the community in protecting our natural environment, enhancing our rural lifestyle and in providing or facilitating quality services, facilities and suitable development and employment opportunities.

5. Structure of the Shire of Chittering

6. Role and Key Functions

The following information outlines the role and key functions of the Chief Executive Officer and each service area.

Function of the Chief Executive Officer

Chief Executive Officer (Section 5.41)

The Chief Executive Officer's functions are-

- Advise the Council in relation to the functions of a local government under this Act and other written laws;

7. Council and Elected Members

The Council consists seven elected members, with the Shire President chosen from the councilors, representing the Shire of Chittering. The elected members are chosen democratically by the community and act in a voluntary capacity to represent the whole district of the Shire of Chittering. The elected members form a corporate body working for the community and do not have the authority to act or make decisions as individuals. Decisions are made as a consensus of the Council in accordance with the Local Government Act 1995.

The role of Council is defined as:

- To direct and control the affairs of the local authority;
- To be responsible for the performance of the local authority's functions; and
- The Council oversees the allocations of the finances and resources and determines the policies.

The Role of the President and Councillors

President (Local Government Act 1995, Section 2.8)

The President:

- Presides at meetings in accordance with the Act;
- Provides leadership and guidance to the community in the district;
- Carries out civic and ceremonial duties on behalf of the local government;
- Speaks on behalf of the local government;
- Performs such other functions as are given to the President by this Act or any other written law; and
- Liaises with the Chief Executive Officer on the local government's affairs and the performance of its functions.

Councillors (Section 2.10)

A Councillor-

- Represents the interests of the electors, ratepayers and residents of the district;
- Provides leadership and guidance to the community in the district;
- Facilitates communication between the community and Council;
- Participates in the local government's decision making process at Council and committee meetings; and

- Performs other such functions as are given to a Councillor by this Act or any other written law.

8. Committees and Decision Making Structure

The seven (7) elected Council members sit as one body and this body is the policy and decision making body for the Shire and meets for a full Council Meeting on the third Wednesday of the month. The Chief Executive Officer and the Executive Managers of the various departments also attend Council Meetings to assist the Councillors with information and advice as required.

Members of the public are welcome to attend all Meetings but are not permitted to take part in Council debate.

The Council has established a number of committees that meet on an as needs basis which have generally been set up to make recommendations to the Council on a specific issue.

9. Public Participation

Members of the public have a number of opportunities to put forward their view on particular issues before Council.

These are:-

- Deputations

With the permission of the presiding chairperson, a member of the public can personally, or on behalf of a resident or group of residents, address the Council, or one of its Committees.

- Public Question Time

This time is allocated for questions to be raised by members of the public and responded to at -

- Every ordinary meeting of Council; and
- Such other meetings of council or committees as may be prescribed.
- A minimum time limit of 15 minutes is allocated to question time.

- Written Requests

A member of the public can write to Council on any Council policy, activity or service of the Council.

- Elected Members

Members of the public can contact the Shire President or Councillors to discuss any issue relevant to Council.

- Community Consultation

SHIRE OF CHITTERING

Information Statement

The Council consults with its residents on particular issues that affect their neighbourhood. The whole community may be asked to comment on a particular issue, while in other instances only the community members directly affected by some issue will be consulted.

The consultation process may take many forms and some of the more commonly used methods are:

- Public meetings, workshops, expressions of interest, advertisements in the local newspapers, social media, leaflet drops, consultative committees, surveys and displays.

Details of documents available for purchase by the general public are detailed in the Fees and Charges Schedule which can be viewed at the Shire Office, 6177 Great Northern Highway, Bindoon.

Available via Freedom of Information Act

While the Shire endeavours to respond to information request informally, Freedom of Information Legislation may be used to request access to information not available by any other means.

The Shire is to administer the Act in a way that:

- Assists the public to obtain access to documents;
- Allows access to documents to be obtained promptly and at the lowest reasonable costs; and
- Assists the public to ensure that personal information contained in documents is accurate, complete, up to date and is not misleading.

While the Act provides for a general right of access to documents it also recognises that some documents require protection - these exemptions are listed in Schedule 1 of the Act and include:

- Personal information;
- Information concerning trade secrets;
- Other commercially valuable information; or
- any other information concerning the business, profession, commercial or financial affairs of a third party who is not the applicant

Access to Shire of Chittering records, Personal or Non Personal can be made by application to the Freedom of Information Officer.

Retention and Disposal of Council Records

All of the Council's records are retained in accordance with the State Records Advisory Council approved Local Government Retention and Disposal Schedule. This schedule stipulates how long a record must be kept and is available for inspection.

11. Amending Personal Information

Applications for amending of personal information must be made in writing and signed by the applicant. Include the details that you require to be changed along with the new details. Information should be written in block letters.
